

Sinclair Broadcasting should not have its license renewed since it is no longer serving the public interest, but the interests of its executives instead.

Democracy dies when it is taken from citizens and given to corporations. The U.S. Constitution guarantees free speech to citizens, not corporations. Please to restore constitutional rights to individuals by making clear to Sinclair that their license will not be renewed if they air a political ad as news.